Desire.

New York, May 18-President Wilson-the man on whom the eyes of the world are turned, because of the viewed the Atlantic fleet in the Hud- of Readsboro, Chauncey Hay of Ruson river and at a luncheon tendered to him on shore by the city of old J. Rice of Searsburg, L. W. Cole New York, told a distinguished gath- of Shaftsbury, A. J. Tanner of Stamering of navy officers, army officers ford, E. L. Lawrence of Sunderland, and civilians what the country and its navy stood for. The great battle- | Estes of Woodford. ships that lay in the river, he said, were "engines to promte the interests of humanity."

"The inspiring thing about America," the president asserted, " is that she asks nothing for herself except what she has a right to ask for humanity itself. We want no nations prop erty; we question no nation's honor; we wish to stand selfishly in the way of the development of no nation ... It is not pretention on our part to say that we are privileged to stand for and speaking oftensr oWswwhfor and speaking for those things which all humanity desire." spirit which brooded over the river vesterday, said the president, "was just a solemn evidence that the force of America is the force of moral principle that there is not anything else she loves and that there is not anything else for which she will contend."

The president took occasion in his speech to pay tribute to Secretary of the Navy Daniels, who sat beside

Although the day was damp and chilly, with occasional downpours of rain, the weather did not abate the enthusiasm with which New York greeted the head of the nation. In the morning he reviewed a land parade of 5000 sailors and marines from the fleet's 16 battleships, and from the moment he set foot on shore until after the luncheon he returned to the Mayflower to review the fleet. his progress through the streets was a continuous ovation, remarked upon by those who accompanied him as the most enthusiastic they had witnessed since the president's inauguration. He was plainly touched by he welcome accorded him.

Doan's Kidney Pills are on trialare being tried every day for weak kidneys-for exhausting kidney backaches. What is the verdict? Read Bennington testimony-personal experiences of Bennington witnesses. There can be only one verdict-a chorus of approval.

James P. Toomey, prop., horse shoeing shop, South & Elm Sts., Bennington, says: "I have never had any very serious kidney trouble, but for some time I was bothered by dull pains across my back. My work aggravated the trouble. 1 had seen Doan's Kidney Pills so highly recommended by Bennington citizens that sent to Cole's Drug Store and got a box. They helped me from the start and soon drove the pains from my back and made me better and stronger. You may continue to usee my en dorsement as long as you desire."

Rome May 18.—Prince Von Beulow the German ambassador, is reported ready to leave Rome as he believes that diplomatic relations will soon be

Rome, May 17-Official confirmation yesterday of the report that the Salandra Cabinet would remain in power was greeted by one of the most remarkable demonstrations of approval ever witnessed in Rome. A crowd, estimated at 300,000 gathered in the Popolo Square at the foot of Pinsian Hill, the slope and summit of which were thronged with representtatives of the most aristocratic fam-Society women wearing the tricolor of Italy waved flags and handkerchiefs as they joined in the cheers of Salandra and Foreign Minister Sonino, while bands played patriotic airs. To the Garibaldian veterans in the Chase of Readsboro, C. G. Leach, crush it seemed that the stirring days of the War of the Independence had returned. Even horses and cabs were decked with flags. Beside the obelisk in the square was an immense caricature of Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria, at which all kinds of missles were hurled. French, Brit ish, Belgian and Russian flags were borne aloft with the Italian colors. There was a great patriotic demonstration before the home of Ricciotti Garbaldi.
